Whereas, we as Student Senators have a duty to do everything possible to mobilize our student body to vote on November 2nd, 2004, and;

Whereas, voting is a fundamental privilege that not everyone takes advantage of, and;

Whereas, voting will take place on campus at Rodli 131;

Therefore be it resolved that the Student Association Student Senate meeting be moved from the Regents Room in the Student Center to Rodli, Room 137/138 on November 2nd, 2004, and;

Therefore be it finally resolved that the Students Association Student Senate sponsor "I Rocked the Vote 2004," with snacks and drinks provided by the New Voters Project in Rodli, Room

137/138 from 4:00 – 8:00pm, with the regular Senate meeting taking place at 7:00pm and be utilized as a listening session for students.

Moved By: Katy Leisch
Seconded By: Matthew Schuelke

Whereas the United States Student Association (USSA) does not have either an ongoing referendum or a mandatory refundable fee with UWRF for which the students may communicate their feelings toward USSA; and

Whereas the students of UWRF pay a over five thousand dollars to USSA per semester; and

Whereas UWRF shall remain a member indirectly of USSA as long as it is within United Council; and

Whereas student leaders on other UW campuses which are members of USSA are reconsidering membership; and

Whereas the USSA has not actively sought communication with UWRF and hence is not able to represent its students well; therefore

Be it Resolved, that the University of Wisconsin – River Falls ends its membership in the United States Student Association.

Moved By: Adam Koski
Seconded By: Jeremy Zitzow
