The UWRF Academic Staff Council (ASC) is the legislative arm of the academic staff. The ASC gives a voice to academic staff at UWRF to help participate in shaping decisions affecting academic staff. The ASC promotes education, professional development activities, and communication between the academic staff members and the broader UWRF community.
Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Who is all considered Academic Staff? Who does the council represent?
A. The ASC represents all academic staff members which consists of instructional academic staff as well as non-instructional academic staff. UWRF employees not represented by the ASC include faculty, university staff, temporary employees, and limited employees.

Q. What does Academic Staff Council do?
A. The ASC aims to improve morale and employee satisfaction at UWRF. Efforts to help achieve these goals include mentoring new academic staff members, Making the Connection events to provide networking opportunities, and exploring other issues connected to academic staff. The ASC works collaboratively with the Faculty Senate and the University Staff Senate.

Q. When and where does Academic Staff Council meet?
A. ASC meets once per month. Meeting dates, times, and locations can be found at https://www.uwrf.edu/AcademicStaffCouncil/MeetingDatesTimes.cfm

Q. Do I have to be on the council to attend a meeting?
A. No! All academic staff are more than welcome (and encouraged) to attend!

MEETING INFORMATION

Q. What resources can Academic Staff Council provide me with?
