The UWRF Chancellor's Student Ambassadors, or CSA's, are a group of premier student leaders who are selected to represent UWRF in a variety of capacities. Student Ambassadors are dedicated to student success, and to strengthening student connections. They serve the university with enthusiasm and pride, and play a vital role in the success of the university as a whole.

An appointment as a Chancellor's Student Ambassador is one of high honor and an opportunity for personal and professional growth. CSA's enjoy the rich experience of working with diverse groups of students, faculty, and guests across campus. They are committed to embracing the campus and community population, and are excited about sharing their experiences at UWRF with others.

Mission: We the Chancellor’s Student Ambassadors are committed to:  1) linking students with UWRF Alumni,  2) introducing students to the UWRF Alumni Association and Foundation,  3) providing leadership opportunities,  4) promoting and serving UWRF and the surrounding community, and  5) offering students an inside look into the field of advancement.
