Department: Sociology, Criminology, & Anthropology
Program Name: Criminology
Program Level: Undergraduate
College: Arts and Sciences
Program: Major
Submitted by: Rich Wallace
Title: Professor
Contact: rich.wallace@uwrf.edu
Submission Date: February 16, 2017

Program Outcomes

Outcome 1: Promoting in students’ knowledge of the core criminological concepts and theories.

Outcome 2: Students will be able to define and apply basic criminological concepts.

Outcome 3: Students will be able to define and apply basic criminological theories.

Outcome 4: Providing students with the tools necessary to conduct and present criminological research.

Outcome 5: Students will be able to identify, understand, and conduct appropriate criminological research that follows the ethical standards of the profession.

Outcome 6: Students will be able to report the results of research orally and in writing to scientific/professional audiences.

Outcome 7: Assisting students in critically and accurately describing the social conditions related to crime and criminal behavior.

Outcome 8: Students will be able to describe the social conditions related to crime and criminal behavior within the context of societies and their systems of criminal justice.

Outcome 9: Students will be able to discuss and create work that identifies, analyzes, and evaluates criminological content through the use of appropriate evidence.