Department: English
Program Name: English-Literature
Program Level: Undergraduate
College: Arts and Sciences
Program: Major
Submitted by: Marshall Toman
Title: Professor
Contact: marshall.toman@uwrf.edu
Submission Date: January 10, 2017

Program Outcomes

Outcome 1: Demonstrate an understanding of historical, social, and formal qualities of the English Language.

Outcome 2: Develop formal argumentative and interpretive essays employing the writing process, critical analysis, and research.

Outcome 3: Relate a thoroughly informed narrative of American and British literary histories.
Department: English
Program Name: English-Education
Program Level: Undergraduate
College: Arts and Sciences
Program: Major
Submitted by: Marshall Toman
Title: Professor
Contact: marshall.toman@uwrf.edu
Submission Date: January 10, 2017

Program Outcomes

Outcome 1: Demonstrate an understanding of historical, social, and formal qualities of the English Language

Outcome 2: Develop formal argumentative and interpretive essays employing the writing process, critical analysis, and research

Outcome 3: Relate a thoroughly informed narrative of American and British literary histories.
Department: English

Program Name: English-Broad Area

Program Level: Undergraduate

College: Arts and Sciences

Program: Major

Submitted by: Marshall Toman

Title: Professor

Contact: marshall.toman@uwrf.edu

Submission Date: January 10, 2017

Program Outcomes

Outcome 1: Demonstrate an understanding of historical, social, and formal qualities of the English Language.

Outcome 2: Develop formal argumentative and interpretive essays employing the writing process, critical analysis, and research.

Outcome 3: Relate an informed narrative of American and British literary histories and know several important literary movements and literary masterpieces within diverse narratives of International literary history.