Department: History and Philosophy

Program Name: Philosophy

Program Level: Undergraduate

College: Arts and Sciences

Program: Minor

Submitted by: Earl Blodgett

Title: Professor

Contact: earl.d.blodgett@uwrf.edu

Submission Date: March 5, 2018

Program Outcomes

Outcome 1: Ethics- Demonstrate knowledge of the main concepts and theories of ethics (e.g., egoism, altruism, rights, duties, utilitarianism, Kantianism, virtue ethics).

Outcome 2: Ethics- Apply these concepts and theories to case studies and contemporary moral issues.

Outcome 3: Ethics- Present effectively in writing an extended argument on a topic of ethical importance.

Outcome 4: Ethics- Articulate counter-arguments to one’s own position.

Outcome 5: Critical Thinking, Problem Solving, Creative Thinking- Define the issues, problems, or questions.

Outcome 6: Critical Thinking, Problem Solving, Creative Thinking- Seek, collect, and analyze data and relevant information including alternative approaches.

Outcome 7: Critical Thinking, Problem Solving, Creative Thinking- Differentiate among facts, opinions, and biases.

Outcome 8: Critical Thinking, Problem Solving, Creative Thinking- Synthesize and generate solutions, and identify possible outcomes.

Outcome 9: Critical Thinking, Problem Solving, Creative Thinking- Use evidence and reasoning to support conclusions.
Outcome 10: Religious, Cultural, and Aesthetic Perspectives- Explain how culture influences different beliefs, practices, and peoples.
Outcome 11: Religious, Cultural, and Aesthetic Perspectives- Recognize fine, literary, and performing arts as essential to the human experience.
Outcome 12: Religious, Cultural, and Aesthetic Perspectives- Identify the social and ethical responsibilities of the individual in society.
Outcome 13: History of Philosophy or of Ideas- Demonstrate historical knowledge, including knowledge, pertaining to the period in question, of core concepts, distinctions, theories, argumentative techniques, movements, and influential figures.