Department: Psychology
Program Name: Women’s and Gender Studies
Program Level: Undergraduate
College: Arts and Sciences
Program: Minor
Submitted by: Melanie Ayres
Title: Professor
Contact: melanie.ayres@uwrf.edu
Submission Date: February 13, 2017

Program Outcomes
Outcome 1: Demonstrate an understanding of situations of social inequity in the U.S. based on gender and/or sexuality.
Outcome 2: Demonstrate an ability to trace the mechanisms of privilege, patriarchy, and power in phenomena related to gender and/or sexuality.
Outcome 3: Use an interdisciplinary lens to analyze concrete phenomena related to gender and/or sexuality.
Outcome 4: Demonstrate an understanding of the interconnected nature of gender with other social categorizations such as ethnicity, class, age, religion, and sexual orientation.
Outcome 5: Articulate and defend his or her ethical position in relation to issues of gender and sexuality.