MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Between

RheinMain University of Applied Sciences - Wiesbaden, Germany

And

The University of Wisconsin – River Falls, River Falls, Wisconsin, U.S.A.

RheinMain University of Applied Sciences and the University of Wisconsin - River Falls agree to consider academic, research, and program collaboration that may include the following areas:

a. Student Exchange Program/Special Students: Both institutions agree to consider the exchange of students between institutions for a specific period and courses of study, on terms and conditions to be mutually agreed.

b. Develop of Academic Program Partnerships: The institutions will explore areas of programmatic collaborations and intellectual exchanges across each university but with particular attention to programs in media and technology; horticulture; computer science, and business.

c. Faculty Exchange Program: Both institutions agree to consider the exchange of their faculty members for a specific period, on terms and conditions to be mutually agreed.

d. Joint Research: Both institutions agree to consider joint faculty and/or student research, scholarly and creative activity programs in areas of common interest, on terms and conditions to be mutually agreed.

e. Other Mutual Interests: Both institutions agree to collaborate on other areas of academic and programmatic interests that may be mutually beneficial, on terms and conditions to be mutually agreed.

Additional specifics related to the initiatives addressed in this MOU may be articulated as desired in a written agreement(s) and shall serve as Memorandums of Agreement (MOA) to this MOU.
This MOU shall come into force and effect from the date of signing and shall be valid for a period of four (4) years. This MOU is extendable for further periods on mutual review and agreement.

The parties hereto have duly executed and delivered this agreement.

Prof. Dr. Detlev Reumann
President
RheinMain University of Applied Sciences
Weisbaden Rüsselheim
Geisenheim, Germany

Date
7/03/12

Dr. Dean Van Galen
Chancellor
University of Wisconsin-River Falls
River Falls, Wisconsin, U.S.A.

Date
6/27/12