GUIDELINES FOR SUBMITTING THE CERTIFICATION OF FINANCES FORM (CFF)
The Certification of Finances Form (CFF) must show only those funds that are accessible to the student immediately. Property, pension, trust funds and other non-liquid assets cannot be included. Completed Certification of Finances Forms are only valid for admission purposes for six months from the date submitted.

Financial documentation is required before your application for admission can be reviewed:

- A completed Certification of Finances Form, signed by all required parties.
- A bank letter or Solvency Certificate, prepared on bank letterhead and written in English, attesting to availability of funds in the currency used at that bank as identified for tuition and living expenses for the undergraduate or graduate applicant in the Certificate of Finances Form, and signed by an official at that bank. This information must be provided by each bank listed.
- Proof of government sponsorships/scholarships if applicable.
- If funding will come from a citizen or permanent resident of the U.S., that sponsor must complete and submit an Affidavit of Support I-134 form which can be found at www.uscis.gov.

All financial documents MUST have:

- Current date and not contain information more than six months old at the time of submission.
- Student’s full name (or account holder’s name if sponsor is someone other than student).
- Bank stamp and bank officer’s signature.

Only the items listed above will be accepted. The University of Wisconsin-River Falls reserves the right to require additional financial information/documentation if necessary.

HOW TO SUBMIT FINANCIAL DOCUMENTS
Documents can be sent as an email attachment in PDF or JPEG format to international@uwrf.edu or be faxed to 715-425-0676. Please limit the size of your attachments to 10 MB.
2017-18 Certification of Finances Form (CFF) for International Applicants

As required by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, this form is necessary to certify that you will have the ability to pay tuition and all living expenses for your first year of study. A Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) for an F-1 student visa will not be issued unless this form is completed and the necessary certifications are submitted.
