Memorandum of Understanding
Between Hanyang University and the University of Wisconsin - River Falls

I. Introduction
The two universities herewith enter into a Memorandum of Understanding to enhance the relationship between them and to develop new undertakings in the years to come. This agreement is intended to help facilitate a meaningful and mutually beneficial relationship between the two institutions.

II. Purpose
Both Hanyang University and the University of Wisconsin – River Falls wish to pursue a collaborative relationship to the greatest extent through overseas study programs and other joint projects which will enhance the educational quality of both institutions.

III. Specific Activities
The two institutions will develop specific activities to implement the mutual understanding set forth in this agreement. These shall in every case be subject to mutual consent and the availability of adequate resources, and shall be set forth in supplementary agreements or protocols.

IV. Communications between the Institutions
Both institutions will communicate with each other on an as needed basis, Hanyang University through its office of International Cooperation and the University of Wisconsin – River Falls through its Office of International Education in collaboration with the College of Business and Economics.

V. Duration of the Agreement
The agreement shall take effect upon approval by both parties and shall remain in effect for an initial period of five years. Thereafter it shall be automatically renewed from year to year; however after the initial period either university may terminate the agreement at the end of a given year by providing a six month notice in writing of such intent. Termination of the agreement will not affect faculty or students from either participating in an exchange so that they may complete the agreed-upon duration of their participation.
