MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT (MOA)

between

Myongji University, Seoul, Korea

and

The University of Wisconsin – River Falls, River Falls, Wisconsin, U.S.A.

“2.5 + 2 Bachelor of Arts in Music/Bachelor of Science in Music”

Myongji University (hereafter called MJU) and the University of Wisconsin, River Falls (hereafter called UWRF) hereby enter into this 2.5 (two and one-half) + 2 agreement between the MJU Conservatory of Music and the UWRF Music Department.

Admission Requirements

Students in good standing and with a required minimum 3.0 grade point average from Myongji University who have completed the 2.5-year program at the MJU Conservatory of Music may apply for admission to the University of Wisconsin-River Falls. Students will be screened by the faculty of MJU and recommended to the University of Wisconsin - River Falls. Students who successfully complete two years (minimum 60 credits) of study of the prescribed curriculum at UWRF will be awarded the Bachelor of Arts in Music or Bachelor of Science in Music degree.

Myongji University students must follow the application process outline at https://www.uwrf.edu/Admissions/InternationalStudents/InternationalApply/InternationalF1.cfm and submit two letters of recommendation from Myongji University staff that address the student’s character, maturity, academic ability, and English language skills. The student must submit a letter in English explaining how studying in the United States fits into her or his educational goals and proof of financial responsibility as listed on the Admissions website above.

Students must also submit a certified English-language copy of Myongji University transcripts. The English proficiency requirement may be fulfilled by meeting the requirements listed on the Admissions website listed in the previous paragraph.

Students who do not meet the English proficiency requirement may apply and be admitted to the UWRF English Language Transition (ELT) program and will be allowed to work toward a degree as their English skills improve.

The College of Arts and Sciences and the Music Department will review the Myongji University, Korean Credit Bank System, and other courses from other nationally accredited universities using the official, UWRF transfer credit evaluation processes. After review of the transfer credits UWRF will determine the curriculum necessary for graduation.
UWRF Graduation Requirements
Myongji University students must meet all graduation requirements for the University of Wisconsin-River Falls. Students must meet UWRF course requirements for General Education and the Music major. Students must earn a minimum of 120 credits from UWRF, including the Myongji University, Korean Credit Bank System, and other nationally accredited transfer credits. A minimum of 60 credits must be earned at UWRF with a grade-point average of 2.25 in the major and 2.00 overall.

Course Work
Actual required courses may vary from student to student depending on the courses transferred from Myongji University.

Program Costs
Myongji University student will be required to pay full international tuition, fees (campus, special course, international student, international insurance), room and board (on-campus housing and food service available), personal, travel, and all other required expenses.

This MOA shall come into force and effect from the date of signing and shall be valid for a period of four (4) years. This MOA constitutes the entire agreement between MJU and UWRF. This MOU is extendable on mutual review and agreement. The agreement may be terminated at the end of a given year by providing a six month notice in writing of such intent. Termination of the agreement will not affect faculty or students from either participating in an exchange so that they may complete the agreed-upon duration of their participation.

The parties hereto have duly executed and delivered this agreement.
