Memorandum of Understanding Between
University of Wisconsin-River Falls
And Kainan University, Taiwan

The University of Wisconsin-River Falls (UWRF) and Kainan University, Taiwan, consent to enter into a formal exchange agreement, based on a foundation of mutual trust established by previous contacts and visits, in order to promote further exchanges of students, faculty members, and administrative staff members for the purpose of educational development and cultural exchange, and to contribute to the mutual benefit and development of the two universities. This MOU also covers the graduate schools of each party.

1. The two universities shall promote the following exchange activities, based on their respective academic and educational needs:
   a) Exchange of students
   b) Exchange of teaching faculty and administrative staff members
   c) Joint research and/or symposia
   d) Exchange of academic materials, publications, and/or information

2. The two universities will develop mutual cooperation in other possible cultural and educational activities that may be initiated by either side.

3. All financial arrangements will be negotiated for each specific activity.

4. No academic venture activities developed under this agreement will be valid until such activities have been formally approved by the top-ranking personnel, namely, the President/Chancellor or Vice President/Vice Chancellor and Provost of the two universities.

5. This agreement shall remain in effect for five years from the date of its signature. The termination of the agreement can be effected only with six month’s advance notification.

6. For specific programs implementation, an additional agreement shall be designed and signed by the respective parties. The initial cooperation is expected to be between the Kainan Applied English Department and the UWRF TESOL M.A. program in the English Department.

The foregoing agreement between the University of Wisconsin-River Falls (UWRF) and Kainan University (KNU) having been duly approved by both parties is hereby executed by the undersigned authorized representatives of each party, to be effective upon the date of signature.
