MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT between Yeungjin College, Republic of Korea and
The University of Wisconsin-River Falls, USA

In order to implement exchange programs based on the Memorandum of Understanding between Yeungjin College in the Republic of Korea and the University of Wisconsin-River Falls in River Falls, Wisconsin, USA, the designated officials responsible for program administration mutually agree that:

1. Each university may recommend one or two exchange students, which are not more than the equivalent of 1 full time student each academic year (2 semesters) per year in undergraduate programs. (Two exchange students enrolling for one semester each will be the equivalent to one exchange student enrolling for one academic year.)

2. The home university will provide the host university with completed application forms or assist the students with submitting the required forms. The students must have sufficient language proficiency and financial resources required by the host university. And the host university may decide to accept the applicants or not.

3. Exchange students must be enrolled as full-time students of credit courses at their home university and enroll full time at the host university.

4. Exchange students will be exempted from paying tuition at the host university. Students will pay the campus/student fees paid by other international students.

5. Exchange students are required to obtain the health and travel insurance as required by the host institution.

6. Exchange students may live in on-campus housing, and need to complete the room and board/meal contract/s, and submit the contract/s to host institution in a timely fashion. Exchange students are responsible for the accommodation and meal costs.

7. Yeungjin College will provide UW-River Falls with a list of courses that are guaranteed to be offered in English a minimum of four months before the start of a term.

8. The host university will evaluate and grade academic performance of exchange students.

9. The minimum length of the exchange will be one semester (one term) and shall not exceed two semesters (one academic year). Both participants reserve the right to discontinue the study term of exchange students at any time for violation of their rules and regulations.

10. Parity in the number of exchange students is desired. However, each party should be prepared to consider a disparity in any given semester or year during the period of the agreement. Any and all imbalances shall be resolved within two years.

11. The memorandum may be revised or modified by the exchange of letters between the two institutions. This arrangement becomes effective until five years from the date of signatures of two signatories. The period may be terminated by one of the signatories upon written notice to the other party with six month’s notice. In the case of termination of this agreement both parties shall continue to perform their respective responsibilities specified in this agreement until such exchange students complete their exchange period.

Two original copies will be written in English and both parties will keep one each.
