ACIS 7.1: Development and Operation of Off-Campus International Educational Programs for University of Wisconsin System Students

The University of Wisconsin System supports off-campus international educational programs as a valid, desired, and increasingly important part of undergraduate and graduate education. The UW System encourages its constituent institutions to provide study abroad opportunities that meet the legitimate academic needs of their students. The UW System recognizes that such programs may take a variety of forms, including traditional semester and academic-year experiences, internships, service learning, and shorter-term international programs. All programs abroad operated, sponsored or approved for academic credit by any UW System institution are expected to maintain standards of quality in the delivery of instruction, support services, and administration which are consistent with the educational excellence that every student is entitled to receive. In general, UW institutions will exercise due diligence regarding programs they operate, sponsor or recommend to ensure that they are:

- appropriate to the mission of the institution;
- integrated into the undergraduate and graduate curricula of the sponsoring institution;
- subject to regular, periodic evaluation and assessment according to the institution's normal review procedures for academic programs and academic support programs;
- comply with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations.

In addition, programs operated or sponsored by any UW System institution abroad shall adhere to the specific guidelines listed below:
Goal 3: Expand Global Literacy and Engagement

UWRF will integrate international and global experiences, learning and attitudes throughout the university.

3.1 – To provide opportunities for a greater number of students and faculty to pursue international travel/study abroad – Student participation rate of 20% within 4 years; 50% within 8 years.

3.1.1 - Find additional financial support for students and faculty to pursue international travel/study abroad.

3.1.2 - Create unified recruitment program for international travel/study abroad. Modify advising. Develop international forum. Develop theme nights in residence halls. Educate parents regarding benefits of international travel.

3.1.3 - Provide additional staff and resources for OIP.

3.2 – To increase the number of international students at UWRF to 5% of enrollment.

3.2.1 - Provide increased support services (host families, supply kits, additional language education, etc.)

3.2.2 - Create structures that support integration of international students with American students outside of the classroom.

3.2.3 - Re-allocate international student revenue to support international students.

3.3 – To internationalize the curriculum and campus programming.

3.3.1 - Recommend foreign language for all students and recommend every student have a significant international component in their degree program.

3.3.2 - Bring international scholars to campus and increase the number of international faculty exchanges.

3.3.3 - Expand the international educational experiences on campus.

1.1.1 - Explore opportunities for institutional support for the creation of a one semester, general education based, semester abroad
