Request Narrative Liberal Arts—Music (B.A./B.S.)

There is only one proposed change to the music major, which is to require MUS 140 (1 credit) in the area of Music Support courses. MUS 140 (Class Piano I) is a course in which music students (who do not already play piano) develop basic keyboard skills, an essential component of any Music Major curriculum. The music department has decided that MUS 140 should be a degree requirement for our Liberal Arts - Music majors, to ensure that students have some basic functional piano skills when they graduate. The course has previously been offered as an elective, with students being 'encouraged' to take it. After discussions of what skills our music majors need upon graduation, and in looking at music curriculums at similar Universities, we agreed that this course should be a requirement for music majors in the B.A. and B.S. degree programs.

The course is already offered every semester, and will not require any additional staffing.
