Your FAFSA application has been selected for review in a process required by the federal government called Verification. We must compare the information from your FAFSA with that provided on this form and any other required documents.

Did anyone listed in your/your parents’ household receive benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as food stamps or FoodShare) any time during the 2011 or 2012 calendar year? Please circle the correct answer.

- No
- Yes

By signing this worksheet, I certify that all the information reported here is complete and correct. I understand that purposely submitting false or misleading information is subject to penalty under federal law.

Student ________________________ Date ____________

Falcon ID number W _________________________