Concerning Water is made possible with support from Andersen Corporation, the St. Croix River Association, and an anonymous donation. It continues Women and Water Rights: Rivers of Regeneration at the Katherine E. Nash Gallery in 2010.

Mayumi Amada
Susan Armington
Cheryl Walsh Bellville
Barbara Riegel Bend
Lynnette Kristine Black
Rachel Breen
James Brenner
Brenda Brousseau
Marilyn Summers Cool
Cheryl Wilgren Clyne
Liz Dodson
Toni Easterson
Bernice Ficek-Swenson
Regina M Flanagan
Sarah Fowler
Lynn Galbreath
Linda Gammell
Deanna Grigus
Karen Gustafson
Carmen Gutierrez-Bolger
Carolyn Halliday
Robyn Hendrix
Lynn Jermal
Diane Katsiaficas
Therese Krupp
Amanda Lovelee
Joyce Lyon
Anna Metcalf
Ardell Nelson
Alis Olsen
Mary Anne Papanek-Miller
Teri Snell Power
Silvana LaCreta Ravena
Cherie Sampson
Jada Schumacher
Peggy Shaw
Mary Simon-Casati
Marcia Soderman
Sandra Spieler
Angela Sprunger
Sandra Lee Starck
Emily Stergar
Meng Tang
Sandra Menefee
Taylor
Jennifer Williams
Terpstra
Laura Tiede
Cate Vermeland
Jantje Visscher
Krista Kelley Walsh
Mary Wright

An exhibition addressing the precarious state of the world’s fresh water supply and the need for women’s voices in water issues.

Concerning Water

Opening Reception and Ceremonial Opening of The Galleries lead by Ojibwe Grandmother Mary Ellen Baker
Friday, June 15, 6:00-8:30 pm

Related Programs
Message and Metaphor: Ideas that Generate Art Creativity Workshop for Artists and Educators ($64 Fee)
Saturday, July 14, 10 am – 4:30 pm and Sunday, July 15, 12:30 – 4:30 pm
Register on the web or call.

Roundtable Discussion with Exhibiting Artists (Free)
Sunday, July 22, 2:30 – 4:00 pm

Galleries are open 9:00 am to 4:30 pm daily [Sunday noon to 4:30 pm] As well as one hour before and during performances in the theater. The Center will be closed on Wednesday, July 4.