Outstanding Sociology Student of the Year Award

and

Excellence in Sociology Award

Criteria for the above awards include academic excellence as well as community and/or university service. The sociology faculty will determine who will receive the award(s). Students being nominated must meet the following criteria:

1) Senior status (96 credit hours) by March 1, at the current academic year. (This includes students who have graduated during the current academic year.)
2) Meets one or both of the following criteria:
   a) Volunteer services to the community. Unpaid activities which demonstrate a commitment to community welfare.
   b) Scholarly activity. Demonstrates a commitment to the values and purposes of the sociology profession through the presentation of papers, coordination of conference sessions, attendance at conference sessions and workshops, and/or publication in professional journals and newsletters. Letters of reference or personal interview may be requested of nominated students.

Additional criteria required for Outstanding Sociology Student of the Year Award:

1) Minimum overall grade point average of 3.25 as of the last grading period.
2) Minimum grade point average of 3.50 in sociology as of the last grading period.