Learning Outcomes

Students involved in program development and implementation, service delivery, facility operations and management in the Division of Student Affairs will:

1. Develop and practice critical thinking and creative problem solving
   - Effectively deal with ambiguity
   - Making informed decisions
   - Evaluating personal performance and success
   - Identifying and utilizing resources
   - Learning from others

2. Articulate an individual sense of personal and social responsibility
   - Becoming aware of personal and institutional values
   - Practicing active citizenship and articulating differences with civility
   - Becoming involved and taking responsibility in creating sustainable communities
   - Holding fellow students accountable for academic and community standards
   - Developing a sense of personal identity

3. Acquire a global and inclusive perspective
   - Increasing appreciation for diversity of thought and opinion
   - Engaging in the study and practice of social justice
   - Building a broad multicultural understanding
   - Developing positive relationships with a wide variety of students
   - Increasing awareness of current events and global issues

4. Apply knowledge and skill acquired through experience
   - Developing effective communication skills
   - Identifying and applying personal strengths
   - Identifying connections between curricular and co-curricular involvement
   - Developing and practicing a variety of individual and team based leadership skills
   - Articulating the benefits of campus experiences through personal reflection