Gregg Heinselman, associate vice chancellor, leads the Division of Student Affairs. It is comprised of facilities, programs, and services that complement the academic experience to fulfill the University's mission of preparing students to be productive, creative, ethical, and engaged global citizens.

Ability Services • Mark Johnson, office coordinator • 129 Hagestad Hall • (715) 425-0740 • www.uwrf.edu/AbilityServices

Offers reasonable accommodations to students who have documented disabilities to support student success.

Career Services • Melissa Wilson, director • 211 Hagestad Hall • (715) 425-3572 • www.uwrf.edu/CareerServices

Provides comprehensive assistance with choosing a major, exploring career options, finding and applying for internships and jobs, as well as selecting and applying to graduate school. Recognizes the importance of helping students discover, develop, and apply their combination of interests, experiences, and values to find a meaningful career.

Counseling Services • Student Health Services • Alice Reilly-Myklebust, director • 211 Hagestad Hall • www.uwrf.edu/StudentHealthAndCounselingServices

Counseling Services: (715) 425-3884 • Student Health Services: (715) 425-3293

Offers on-campus professional mental health counseling services, clinical services contracted through Vibrant Family Health Clinics in River Falls and Pierce County Reproductive Health. Holistic educational and preventative initiatives and programming are also offered.

C.H.I.L.D. Center • Minda Matthys, director • C.H.I.L.D. Center • (715) 425-0656 • www.uwrf.edu/ChildCare

Provides quality childcare services for UWRF students, faculty, staff, and the community. Serves as a fieldwork site for academic programs including Early Childhood Education and Elementary Education, Communicative Disorders, Social Work, Counseling and School Psychology. It is also a 4K site in collaboration with the River Falls School District.

Dining Services • Cara Rubis, director • 170 University Center • (715) 425-4444 • www.uwrf.edu/Dining

Committed to creating the best possible community-centered dining experience for students, faculty, staff, and guests of the University. Menus are based on fresh ingredients, healthy options, and a shared sense of environmental and social responsibility.

Recreation and Sport Facilities • Steve Stocker, director • Hunt/Knowles Complex • (715) 425-4289 • www.uwrf.edu/RecreationAndSportFacilities

Provides programs and facilities for recreational and athletic events. The Knowles Center, Hunt Arena, and outdoor fields are venues for Falcon Outdoor Adventures, open recreation, sport clubs, intramurals, skate school, and open skating.

Residence Life • Karla Thoennes, director • B3 Hathorn Hall • (715) 425-4555 • www.uwrf.edu/Housing

Helps students understand the value of living civilly and engaging in healthy behaviors that support the academic mission of UW-River Falls.

Student Conduct and Community Standards • Thomas Pedersen, director • B3 Hathorn Hall • (715) 425-0720 • go.uwrf.edu/SCCS

Promotes student awareness and understanding of their rights and responsibilities as members of the University community.

Student Life • Paul Shepherd, director • 170 University Center • (715) 425-4444 • www.uwrf.edu/StudentLife

Offers opportunities for student engagement and development outside the classroom including leadership, diversity and sociocultural education, service, student organizations, fraternities and sororities, and campus-wide events.

University Center • Cara Rubis, director • 170 University Center • (715) 425-4444 • www.uwrf.edu/UniversityCenter

It's the campus gathering place for students, faculty, staff, alumni, and guests offering a variety of meeting rooms and dining options. Conveniently located near the center of campus, it houses the Campus Information Desk, Campus Reservations, Conference and Event Services, Dining Services, Production Services, Involvement Center, Student Life, Falcon Shop, First National Bank, and Division of Student Affairs administrative offices.
Make your college career unforgettable. We're here to help you take risks, expand your mind, and discover your passions.

Student Affairs will answer your questions about:

• Living on campus
• Meal plans & places to eat
• University Center (student union)
• Intramural sports & recreation
• Student Senate
• Fraternities, sororities, & student organizations
• On-campus concerts, events, & activities
• Service-oriented programs

Student Affairs provides these services when you need:

• Student wellness & health information
• One-on-one counseling
• Job & career assistance
• Help understanding your rights & responsibilities
• Room(s) for meetings or events
• On-campus child care
• Reasonable accommodations for a documented disability

I encourage you to connect with Student Affairs where you, the student, are our highest priority. Together we'll fulfill the University’s mission of preparing students to be productive, creative, ethical, and engaged global citizens.

Gregg M. Heinselman
Associate Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs
(715) 425-0720 • gregg.heinselman@uwrf.edu