Division of Student Affairs Learning Outcomes

Outcome 1: Develop and practice critical thinking and creative problem solving
Outcome 2: Articulate an individual sense of personal and social responsibility
Outcome 3: Acquire a global and inclusive perspective
Outcome 4: Apply knowledge and skills acquired through experience

Division of Student Affairs Student Employee Learning Outcomes

1. Student employees in Student Affairs will develop an awareness of self and others by:
   - Understanding how their experience connects to their future professional plans and goals
   - Appropriately challenging and supporting team members and professional staff
   - Understanding and articulating their strengths and weaknesses
   - Recognizing the value of personal health and wellness on successful job and academic performance
   - Exhibiting inclusive language and behavior

   Core Values: Student Centered, Inclusiveness, Academic Excellence  (Outcomes 2, 3, & 4)

2. Student employees in Student Affairs will understand the value and importance of being an ethical leader by:
   - Understanding their role as an ambassador of the department, division and the university
   - Engaging in sound decision-making practices and exercising good judgment

   Core Values: Student Centered, Integrity  (Outcomes 1, 2, & 4)

3. Student employees in Student Affairs will be exposed to a professional work environment by:
   - Practicing effective communication skills
   - Employing exemplary customer service techniques

   Core Values: Student Centered, Integrity, Academic Excellence  (Outcomes 1 & 4)