Come experience a unique way to spread kindness and enjoy art! I am KINDRF is inspired from the local Twin Cities event "I am Kindness" and provides artists and participants a way to be kind to one another and appreciate art. Partake in music, art activities, refreshments, and bid on art! The catch...participants cannot actually buy any art but only get the art once they have completed a kindness act of the artist's choosing.

Upon arrival to the event, participants will receive a number of tickets. During the event individuals will drop their tickets in jars next to the art piece they want and if their name is drawn they will be notified. Once the individual has completed the kindness act predetermined by the artist, they will be able to take the art home. Come enjoy an evening of music, kindness, and art! I am KINDRF is an event you will not want to miss!
