Students involved in the opportunities offered by the Office of Student Life will have multiple opportunities to:

Engage in critical and creative thinking to expand understanding
- Engage in long term planning
- Communicate and listen effectively
- Understand complex issues facing our world
- Practice self reflection
- Articulate skills gained through learning experiences
- Identify solutions to problems

Develop an active and engaged community
- Communicate and listen effectively
- Practice civility
- Build teams to accomplish goals
- Invest in the success of others
- Take personal responsibility for the community
- Move beyond just belonging to being engaged

Create an environment inclusive of a variety of perspectives and ideas
- Value the humanity in all people
- Understand the effect of local and global issues
- Consider different perspectives
- Examine and engage in ways to change systems that are socially unjust
- Understand dominant and subordinate identities and how these intersect in society
- Become aware of cultures or experiences different from their own

Examine and articulate personal values and a sense of individual identity
- Identify personal values
- Make positive decisions consistent with personal values
- Understand one’s true self (values, personality, interests, strengths, etc.)
- Identify membership in personal identity groups
- Become authentic in various contexts
- Support the identity development of others

Pursue opportunities to become engaged leaders locally and globally
- Identify opportunities to develop leadership skills
- Practice leadership regardless of position
- Build consensus among team members
- Develop confidence
- Manage time and stress effectively
- Become aware of how to manage a budget