Baseball Team Held Scoreless by the Warriors

The Falcon baseball team dropped a doubleheader to Winona St., 11-0 and 7-0, Tuesday afternoon at Ramer Field.

The team couldn't solve the Winona pitching staff all day long, collecting just three hits in the two games. No one on the team collected more than one hit.

In the first game, the Warriors capitalized on eight Falcon errors to score five unearned runs.

Mike Van Eperen's two-run shot in the second and Shea Mueske's three-run bomb in the sixth off Mike Harris were all the runs needed by Winona starter John Spaeth. Spaeth took a perfect game into the through five innings before Brad Stokke broke it up with a leadoff single in the sixth.

In the second game, despite a solid pitching performance from Justin Everson, the Falcons were turned back 7-0. Everson pitched 4 1/3, allowing three runs, one earned, on three hits, but was outdueled by the Winona St. pitching staff.

Josh Loewen pitched six innings of two-hit ball for the win.

The Falcons drop to 15-15 for the season, and will play UW-Platteville Friday at 12:30 p.m at Ramer Field.

Falcons Win Twice at Superior

The Falcons won twice at UW-Superior Saturday, 19-5 and 11-7 in 12 innings, on Saturday.

In the first game the Falcons scored 19 runs on 18 hits and made two errors. UWS had five runs on eight hits and had one error. The Falcons exploded for 11 runs in the fourth inning. Scott DeWyre was 3-4 with five RBIs and he hit a home run. Joe Schmidt was 3-4 with four runs scored and two RBIs. He hit two homers. Tim Johnson was 2-5 with three runs scored and three RBIs. He hit a homer. Nathan Brom was 4-5 with two runs scored and two RBIs. He also homered. Nick Reimler was 3-6 with two runs scored and two RBIs. Jason Bachman went the distance on the mound. He walked two and struck out two.

Baseball Splits Pair of One-Run Games Against La Crosse

The Falcons split with the Eagles on Friday, winning the first game, 7-6, in 11 innings and losing the second, 13-12.

In the first game, Joe Schmidt's sacrifice fly scoring Nick Reimler gave the Falcons a 7-6 win. With one out, Reimler was hit by a Steve Bleck pitch and advanced to third on a Tim Johns single to left field. Schmidt then hit a shallow fly ball to center field. Joe Jansen's throw was off target, and the Falcons won their second conference game of the season.

Josh Eidem pitched 3 1/3 innings of relief to get the win. He gave up one runs, none earned, on five hits.

Eidem came in for Dale LeMonds, who gave the Falcons 7 2/3 of solid pitching; however, the Eagles capitalized on every mistake. Of the five runs LeMonds gave up, four came on homeruns. James DeCremer hit a two-run bomb to give La Crosse a 2-1 lead in the second. Vinnie Rottino hit a homer to right in the sixth, and Tom Tollefson hit one in the eighth.

The Falcons would not go down. Down 4-1, they came back with three runs in the sixth off starter Andy Elkamp. With the bases loaded and one out, Nate Brom was hit by a pitch. With two out, Corey Martinson ground ball was thrown away and Brad Stokke and Scott DeWyre scored.

In the second game, the Falcons blew a seven-run first inning to fall to the Eagles, 13-12.

After scoring three runs in the third, La Crosse added five-run rally in the fourth, all with two outs on starting pitcher Dan Morgan.

Again, the Eagles did it with the long ball. Casey Babilitch hit two home runs off Morgan, and Kevin Blazek added another shot.

Scott DeWyre added a solo shot in the eighth, but it wasn't enough.

The Falcons fought back to take a 11-10 lead, but Bruce Grandits couldn't hold it and took the loss.

Reimler went 4-for-6 to lead the Falcons; Eidem went 2-for-4 with a pair of RBI.

The Falcons are now 13-13, 2-6 in the WIAC. La Crosse is 21-12, 5-3 in conference. The Falcons will remain in conference play Saturday when they face Superior at noon in Superior.

The Falcons play another WIAC doubleheader at UW-Stevens Point on Saturday. That game starts at noon.

Bats Come Alive in Sweep of Gusties

The Falcon baseball team swept past Gustavus Adolphus with 11-4 and 12-9 victories on Tuesday afternoon at Ramer Field.

In the first game, the Falcon fell behind 2-0 before erupting for seven runs in the bottom of the fifth to take the lead for good. With runners at second and third and no one out, Jason Bachman and Nick reimler each put perfect bunts down the third base line for infield hits and a tie ballgame. After a Tim Johnson fly out, A.J. Burr crushed a grand slam to right center to give the Falcons a 6-2 lead. The next batter, Scott DeWyre, went deep as well.

The Falcons added four more runs in the sixth for their final runs. Lucas Chase did most of the damage with a two-run double. Justin Everson pitched 4 2/3 innings for the win. He gave up two runs on four hits, walked three and struck out two.

In the second game, the Falcon bats were too much for the Gusties.

The Falcons led Gustavus Adolphus 11-2 after five before the Gusties scored seven times in the sixth to cut the lead to two.

The Falcons added an insurance run in the sixth to cement the victory.

Burr went deep again for the team, this time a three-run bomb in the fifth. Nate Brom added four RBIs.

Mike Harris pitched four solid innings for the victory. He allowed two runs on five hits, walked three, and struck out one.

The Falcons will return to conference play Friday when they travel to UW-Oshkosh on Friday and UW-Stevens Point on Saturday.

Falcons Bedeviled by Stout

The Falcon baseball team slipped back to .500 with a pair of losses Monday afternoon against UW-Stout at Ramer Field.

The Falcons opened WIAC play with 8-4 and 5-4 losses at the hands of the Blue Devils in front of a chilled and sparse crowd of 15.

In the first game, the Falcons got two-out rally in the first when Joe Schmidt doubled and scored on a Scott DeWyre single. DeWyre stole second and scored on a A.J. Burr hot shot up the middle.

However, Stout scored three in the second to take the lead from starter Bruce Grandits. Nick Kalina and Brock Meyer each had run-scoring doubles.

Down 4-2, the Falcons tied the score with single runs in the fifth and sixth, but the Blue Devils scored two in the seventh and ninth for the win.

Grandits pitched seven innings, allowing six runs on nine hits. He also had trouble getting ahead of Blue Devils hitters.

The story was the same in round two as the Falcons could not find an answer for the Stout pitching staff.

This time, it was Scott Meyer shutting down the Falcons with four runs on nine hits. Meyer used a variety of off-speed pitches to keep the Falcons off-guard at the plate.

The Blue Devils scored all their runs off Dan Morgan. The freshman pitched 5 1/3 innings, giving up five runs on six hits.

Down 5-3, the Falcons cut the lead in half when Schmidt smashed a homerun to left-center in the eighth inning.

The Falcons had a chance to tie the game in the bottom of the ninth, but could only score a single run. With runners at second and third and one out, Corey Martinson's sacrifice fly scored Nate Brom. However, Jason Bachman flied out to right field to end the game.

The Falcons are now 9-9, 0-2 in the WIAC. They will play a pair of games with Gustavus Adolphus 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday at Ramer Field.

Falcon Baseball Wins Two

The Falcons improved their record to 9-7 with two impressive victories over Hamline on Friday afternoon at Ramer Field.

The Falcons cruised in both games, winning the first game 8-1 and the second game 10-2.

In the first game, the Falcons jumped on the Pipers early with a three-run surge in the first. With one out, Tim Johnson singled and scored on a Joe Schmidt double. Burr added a two-out base hit to score Schmidt, and Brad Stokke knocked in Burr with a double.

Defensively, four Falcons combined to scatter seven hits. Justin Everson pitched three scoreless innings to earn the win.

Scott DeWyre increased the lead to 5-0 in the fifth inning with a towering home run to left field. Corey Martinson put two more runs on the board with a two-out double.

In the second game, pitcher Dale LeMonds earned his fifth victory of the season, allowing two runs, one earned, through six inning of work. LeMonds walked none and struck out five.

Leading the contest 2-1, the Falcons put the game out of reach in the fourth, erupting for seven runs. Johnson's bases loaded double and Schmidt's three-run bomb to center chased eventual losing pitcher Billy Diaz.

The Falcons begin their WIAC schedule tomorrow with a doubleheader against UW-Stout. First pitch is at noon.
Falcon Baseball Sweeps Concordia-Moorhead

April 9, 2000

Falcons run record to 7-7 with 7-4 and 10-4 victories over Concordia-Moorhead on Sunday.

In the first game, Dale LeMonds earned his fourth victory of the young season by going the distance, allowing four runs on seven hits, one walk and four strikeouts.

The Falcons broke a 3-3 tie with four runs in the top of the fifth. Shortstop Scott DeWyre led off with a double and scored on a Brad Stokke single. After Nate Brom singled and Corey Martinson walked to load the bases with one out, Josh Eidem knocked in a pair with a double. Joe Schmidt later walked with the bases loaded to score the final run.

Schmidt, Stokke, Martinson, and Tim Johnson each had a pair of hits while Martinson added three runs. The Falcons outhit the Cobbers 12-7.

In the second game, the Falcons got more good starting pitching as Dan Morgan went the full seven innings in the 10-4 victory. Morgan (1-1) gave up four runs, two of them earned on six hits, six walks, and four strikeouts. Over the last four games, all wins, the Falcon bullpen has not been used.

The Falcons scored six runs over the last two innings to get the win. A.J. Burr's two-run homer in the sixth inning put the Falcons up for good.

The Falcons smacked 16 hits in the contest. Schmidt and DeWyre each had three. Brom and Martinson each had a pair of hits.

The Falcons play their first game at Ramer Field on Friday against Hamline. They will play a pair of games starting at 2:30 p.m.

Falcons Top Northwestern Twice

The Falcons beat Northwestern, Minn., College, 5-2 and 16-0 Tuesday in Roseville, Minn. The Falcons raised their record to 5-7 on the season.
