Falcon News

Golfers Finish Seventh at WIAC Championships

The Falcon golf team finished in seventh place at the WIAC Championships held over the weekend at the Northern Bay Golf Resort.

The Falcons entered Sunday's play in sixth place, but fell to seventh with a team total of 374. The Falcons finished with 1,135 strokes over the three-day event. The Falcons opened with a 374 on Friday and had a 387 on Saturday.

Kelly Gordh was the team's top finisher. She shot a 92 on Sunday and finished in a tie for 25th place with 271 strokes. Mackenzie was second for the Falcons and she placed 34th overall. She shot a 94 on Sunday and had a three-day total of 282.

Cyan Zengaffinen had the best round of the day for the Falcons on Sunday with an 89. She finished in a tie for 37th place with a 292 total.

Courtney Swanson placed 43rd with a 303 total. She shot a 99 on Sunday. Kate Gjerning finished in 44th place overall with a 304 total. She shot 100 on Sunday.

Eau Claire's Katie Maurer won the individual title with a three day total of 227.

Eau Claire won the team title with a three day total of 963. They were followed by Whitewater 1005, Stevens Point 1039, Stout 1059, Platteville 1077, Oshkosh 1128 and River Falls 1135.

The course played at 5,808 yards and par was 73.

Gordh was named to the All-WIAC Sportsmanship team. The All-Sportsmanship team is for individuals that displayed exemplary sportsmanship throughout the season. The team included one member from each school as selected by that school. Others named to the team were: Eau Claire's Katie Swift, Oshkosh's Emily Wichman, Platteville's Tricia Pawelski, Stevens Point's Jessica Urban, Stout's Kelsey Treptow and Whitewater's Lindsay Porter.

This is the last meet of the fall season for the Falcons.

Golfers Remain in Sixth Place at WIAC Championships

The Falcon golf team remains in sixth place at the WIAC Championships being played at the Northern Bay Golf Resort.

Cranston Named Head Golf Coach
Matt Cranston

Matt Cranston has been named women’s golf coach at UW-River Falls according to Athletic Director, Rick Bowen.

“We are thrilled to have Matt join us,” said Bowen. “His experience working with young student-athletes, his work ethic and his knowledge of the game make him a perfect fit.”

Cranston returns to his alma mater with a strong coaching and leadership background. He played golf and lettered for the Falcons in 1983, 1984 and 1985 and earned his undergraduate degree in agriculture economics in 1985.

Cranston believes in getting the best out of student-athletes while creating a positive and fun experience. “I truly believe you can be very serious, competitive and win and still have fun,” he said. “I am very excited to help make this program the best it can, and do it quickly.”

Cranston was the driving force in establishing a girl’s high school hockey program in the River Falls area. He has worked tirelessly with high school administrators and youth programs in four communities (River Falls, Baldwin/Woodville, St. Croix Central and Spring Valley) to establish the St. Croix Valley Fusion co-op team.

Cranston has been the only head coach of the team that was established in 2006. He has led the Fusion to an impressive 93-19-4 record, with five winning seasons and possibly the most successful Wisconsin girl’s varsity hockey program in the sport’s history.

The Fusion has advanced to the sectional final every year. They have won the Big Rivers Conference championship every year of its existence, and won back-to-back WIAA State Championships in 2009 and 2010. The team has also won the coveted WIAA Sportsmanship Award in 2009 and 2010.

Cranston has been named the Wisconsin girls hockey High School Coach of the Year Award winner in each of the last three seasons. He will continue to be the Fusion head coach.

Cranston’s brother, Joe, is the head coach of the highly successful Falcon women’s hockey team. Joe has led the Falcons to three NCAA National Tournament berths, including back-to-back appearances in 2009 and 2010. The Falcons have won two NCHA regular season titles (2003, 2009) and four NCHA playoff championships (2001, 2003, 2009, 2010). He has been named the NCHA Coach of the Year three times (2003, 2007, 2009). “Joe and I share many of the same philosophies. I feel the relationship that we have will help me make the Falcon golf program successful,” said Matt.

Cranston, a native of Fergus Falls, Minn., attended Bemidji State University for one year and helped BSU win a NAIA hockey National Championship in 1980. He then transferred to UWRF where he played golf and earned his degree. He played golf and hockey while attending Fergus Falls High School.

Cranston and wife Amy (UWRF alumna and four-year letter winner and captain of Falcon gymnastics team) live in River Falls. They have three daughters, Lily (18), Alice (16) and Sally (15).
