M-Macalester; EC-Eau Claire; L-Lawrence; SJI-St. John's Invitational; H-Hamline; SCI-St. Catherine Invite; SM-St. Mary's; WIAC-WIAC Meet
Swimming strong relay races throughout the duration of the meet, the women set a fourth place finish in the 400 freestyle relay going into the event finals. Jill Lambach, Alyssa Adair, Ashley Wently and Danielle Mandich slid into fifth place during the finals despite a faster race time of 3:48.54.

Falcon Danielle Mandich was beat out by Lynnea Krajco of Oshkosh for a place in the 100 freestyle finals. With a ninth place finish in 55.60, Mandich finished the prelim race just behind Krajco’s 55.58 finish. Mandich later went on to place tenth in the 100 freestyle consolation finals at a time of 55.88.

For the men Matt Banz and Michael Brudzinski produced competitive finishes in the 200 breaststroke and 200 butterfly prelims. Brudzinski swam the 200 breaststroke for a tenth place prelim finish (2:23.28) and a tenth place consolation final finish (2:21.75). Banz competed in the 200 butterfly to place eleventh (2:10.77) during the prelims and tenth in the consolation finals in a time of 2:10.39.

Banz, Jacob Moe, Dave Johnson and Tyler Ormson ended the day with a sixth place finish in the 400 freestyle relay (3:30.64).

Falcons in Sixth Place at the Close of Day Two of Conference Swimming and Diving Championships

Feb. 16, 2007

The Falcons took on conference competitors in the second day of the WIAC Swimming and Diving Championships Friday at Stevens Point.

Ending day one in sixth place, the Falcons stay in sixth place among the team standings at the end of day two. The men total 131 team points behind the conference leader La Crosse with 591 team points. Leading the women into day three is Stevens Point (661.5); The Falcon women will start day three with 158.5 team points.

Leading the men for the second day in a row, Matt Banz placed twelfth in the 100 butterfly during the consolation round with a time of 55.37.

Falcon Michael Brudzinski swam in two individual events to place twelfth in the 400 IM (4:44.51) and fourteenth in the 100 breaststroke (1:04.91) during the prelims to advance to the consolation finals. Brudzinski’s twelfth place finish in the 400 IM stood after the event finals; Brudzinski finished at 4:45.42. Finishing the 100 breaststroke in 1:05.45 Brudzinski placed fifteenth overall.

Also for the men, Tyler Ormson held his spot in the 100 backstroke after a prelim finish (1:00.39) for eleventh place. Ormson finished at 1:00.65 in the event finals.

Martha O’Brien, Alyssa Adair and Danielle Mandich achieved leading finishes among the women.

O’Brien ended the day with a fifteenth place finish in the 200 IM event finals stopping the clock at 2:21.88. Mandich followed suit placing fifteenth in the 200 freestyle (2:03.94). Adair gained a place from her prelim finish to claim twelfth place in the 200 backstroke finals in a time of 1:50.86.

The Falcons will finish the WIAC Championships on Saturday at the Stevens Point Aquatics Center beginning at 10 a.m.

Falcons Finish Day One of the WIAC Swimming and Diving Championships Feb. 15, 2007

The Falcons competed at the Stevens Point Aquatics Center Thursday in the first day of the 2007 WIAC Swimming and Diving Championships.

Earning 78.5 points, the women stand in sixth place. The men earned 56 points to finish in sixth place at the close of day one.

Host Stevens Point leads the teams into day two with first place standings for both the men (261) and women (292.5).

Season leader Danielle Mandich led the women. Mandich placed eighth in the 50 freestyle prelims in a time of 25.28 to advance to the event finals. Mandich later went on to hold eighth place in the 50 freestyle finals finishing with a time of 25.38.

Also performing well for the Falcons, Jill Lambach and Alyssa Adair swam in the first round of prelims to place respectively among their competitors. Lambach took thirteenth in the 50 freestyle in 26.04 seconds and Adair placed fifteenth in the 500 freestyle in 5:41.29 to advance to the consolation finals in those events. Adair ended the day with a sixteenth place finish in the 500 freestyle in a time of 5:45.54. Lambach tied for fourteenth in the 500 freestyle with Ane Klomps of Eau Claire in 26.26.

Falcon Matt Banz swam persistently for the men to finish fifteenth overall in the 50 freestyle in a time of 22.67 for the event consolation finals.

Although without any final round competition, Falcons Anthony Yarusso, Tyler Campbell, Tyler Ormson, David Johnson and Mikhael Keyser used their work ethic to battle in the prelims. The men were consistent placing in the low twenties.

The Falcons will compete in days two and three of the WIAC Championships Friday and Saturday at the Stevens Point Aquatics Center starting at 10 a.m.

Falcons Face St. Mary’s in Swim and Dive Dual Jan. 27, 2007

Competing in their last regular season meet, the Falcons took on the Saint Mary Cardinals in a dual swim meet Saturday afternoon.

The women beat out St. Mary for a win of 149 team points to 111 team points. The men were defeated and took second with 111 team points.

Matt Banz and Mikhael Keyser led the men with Banz earning three first place finishes and Keyser earning two.
Banz claimed the 50 and 100 freestyle events in times of 23.19 and 50.83. He later went on to take first in the 100 butterfly in a time of 56.15. Keyser snatched the first event win for the men in the 100 backstroke at 1:04.40. In the 200 backstroke Keyser earned his second win with a time of 2:18.67.

Falcons Tom Fritchen and Michael Brudzinski also swam well for the men taking first, second and third in their individual events. Brudzinski took first in the 400 IM and Fritchen went double in the 200 butterfly and 400 IM for second place.

Leading the women Falcons Jill Lambach, Danielle Mandich, Sara Cannady and Alyssa Adair battled the Cardinals for top place finishes.

Lambach and Mandich topped the pack with two wins each. Lambach placed first in the 100 and 200 freestyle races. Mandich used her speed to finish first in the 50 and 500 freestyle events.

Cannady also earned a first place finish in the 200 breaststroke in a time of 2:43.67. Just missing first place, Adair earned second place in the 100 backstroke and 100 freestyle.

Falcon freshman diver, Jaynell Feider, contributed to the women’s win with one and 3-meter dive wins.

Next for the Falcons is the WIAC Meet at Stevens Point February 15, 16 and 17 starting at 10 a.m.

Swim Teams Compete at St. Kates Invite Jan. 20, 2007

In the first meet since winter training, the Falcon men’s and women’s swimming and diving teams competed in the St. Catherine Invitational on Saturday.

The Falcon men took second out of three teams with 553 points. Out of seven women’s teams, the Falcons placed fourth with 328 points.

Freshman diver Jaynell Feider started the events for the women with a third place finish in the one-meter dive.

Danielle Mandich won the 50 free with a time of 25.78 and later went on to place sixth in the 100 butterfly and fifth in the 100 free against 15 competitors. In a time of 26.8 for fourth place, Jill Lambach finished fourth in the 50 free. She was of value to the Falcons also competing in the 200 and 100 free earning seventh and third in those events.

Macalester claimed the win for the women with 629 points followed closely by St. Thomas with 622 and Concordia with 574 team points.

Beaten out by St. Thomas for a first place finish, the Falcon men swam a competitive meet with Mikhail Keyser, Anthony Yarusso and Matt Banz leading the way.

Starting the season out quiet, Banz swam loud with first, second and fourth place finishes for the Falcon men. Banz dominated the 200 butterfly with a second seven margin win in a time of 2:13.19.

Keyser and Yarusso competed along side one another in the 200 IM to claim second and third place. Swimming in multiple events, Keyser placed sixth in the 200 backstroke in 2:23.17 and seventh in the 100 backstroke in 1:05.79. Yarusso scored coveted team points bringing in 27 team points for the Falcons swimming in the 100 and 200 breaststroke.

The Falcons will next compete at St. Mary’s on Saturday at 1 p.m.

Men, Women Defeated by Hamline in Swim Battle Dec. 16, 2006

The men’s and women’s swimming and diving teams lost on the road to Hamline. The Falcon men were defeated 110 to 135. Losing by a margin of 13 points, the Falcon women fell to Hamline 135 to 148 team points.

Competing without a diver, the Falcon men lost out on valuable points. Jake Kruger and Nick Vogel dove for Hamline earning first and second place team points.

For the Falcons Michael Brudzinski led the men winning the 100 backstroke and the 100 butterfly. Brudzinski also finished second in the 200 breaststroke and 100 butterfly as part of the 200 medley relay which placed second with a time of 1:52.09.

Swimming to solid point places Falcon Tom Fritchen helped the men in the 1000 freestyle, the 100 butterfly and the 400 freestyle relay. Falcons David Johnson, Tyler Ormson, Anthony Orlando, Anthony Yarusso, Mikhail Keyser and Tyler Campbell competed in a series of events for the men earning points in a tough competition against the well balanced Hamline swim team.

The women swam in a close dual meet as Falcons Danielle Mandich and Sara Cannady carried the team through placing first in two events and second in one event both individually. Mandich took first in the 200 and 50 free and second in the 100 freestyle in 57.05 less than on second behind Hamline competitor Dana Ketcher who finished in 56.58. Next the Falcons host Eau Claire on Saturday. The meet will take place at the River Falls High School beginning at 1 p.m.
Bill Henderson begins his fifth year at the helm of the UW-River Falls men's and women's swimming and diving teams.

Henderson's coaching experience covers just about every level of swimming competition from summer recreation to elite, Olympic trial qualifiers and from high school junior varsity to NCAA Div. I competition. His swimmers have garnered over 50 national Top 16 rankings in club swimming, over 20 high school All-American rankings, and more than a dozen junior college All-American rankings. He also coached junior college water polo in California for 12 seasons.

Henderson was the driving force enabling UWRF to host the 2005-06 WIAC Championships. He organized and gave a presentation that was approved by WIAC swimming coaches and athletic directors. He acquired meet site information and ultimately the state-of-the-art University of Minnesota Aquatic Center was chosen as the meet's site. The Center hosted the 2005 NCAA Div. I men's championships and the 2005 Big Ten men's conference meet. The Center will host the 2007 NCAA Div. I men's National Championships. He also has organized a volunteer group which helped in performing the many duties associated with the WIAC Meet operations.

Before coming to UWRF, Henderson served as a volunteer assistant at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo where he worked with old friend, Richard Firman. During this time he also served as head age group coach for the San Luis Obispo Seahawks. He was the head coach of men's and women's swimming and diving at Foothill College as well as the head coach of women's water polo team. Before that he was the head coach of men's and women's swimming and diving teams at Solano Community College and head coach of the men's water polo team. He also served as head coach of the Sierra Marlins swim team, a year round swim club, from 1984-1995. During this time he coached the Sierra College men's water polo team from 1985-93.

As a competitor, Henderson was an age group national champion and top five finisher more than 20 times. He garnered high school All-American honors at Rio Americano High School in Sacramento, Calif., and junior college All-American honors at American River College. He was captain of the Cal State University of Sacramento swim team his senior year. In 1997 he was Pacific Masters champion in the 1650-yard freestyle and finished second in the nation in the master's rankings that year.

Henderson earned his M.S. degree in physical education in 1995 and his B.A. degree in journalism in 1985, both at Cal. State Sacramento.

Aside from his duties with the UWRF teams he served as a coach for the U.S. Paralympic swim team and traveled to Athens in September of 2004 for the Paralympic Games.

He teaches in the UWRF health & human performance department.

Assistant Coaches

Ashley Ryan Hawke joins the coaching staff after an outstanding career as a Falcon swimmer. The former captain of the men's team scored at the conference finals all four years and was a member of two team record-setting relays. Coach Bill Henderson feels that his familiarity with the program will be a true asset to this year's team.

Pudgie Siverling begins her second year as a volunteer assistant on the coaching staff after two outstanding years competing for the Falcon women's team. Coach Bill Henderson is very glad to have Pudge as part of the program.
