Falcons Finish Fourth at WIAC Meet; Mulligan Named Scholar-Athlete

Oct. 21, 2001

The Falcon tennis team placed fourth in the WIAC Meet, and fourth overall, in action in Madison over the weekend.

The Falcons scored 39 points at the WIAC Meet. Coupled with the four points they earned in the dual meet season, the team finished with 12 points and a fourth place finish in the final overall standings. Eau Claire finished first in the overall standings with 21 points followed by Whitewater (18), La Crosse (15), RF (12), Oshkosh (9), Stevens Point (6) and Stout (3).

Meghann Mulligan won the WIAC Judy Kruckman Scholar-Athlete Award. She is the first Falcon tennis player to ever win the award. The award goes to only one WIAC athlete in each sport. In order to be nominated for the award a student-athlete must have a minimum 3.25 grade point average, be in their last year of competition, or on schedule to graduate this academic year and have competed for a minimum of two years.

Mulligan placed third at No. 2 singles at the WIAC Meet. Amanda Gray placed third at No. 4 singles and Mary Metzer placed third at No. 5. The No. 2 doubles team of Jordan Anderson and Mulligan also placed third.

Lindsay Oberg placed fourth at No. 1 singles, Anderson placed fourth at No. 3 singles and Meredith Verberne placed fourth at No. 6 singles. Metzer and Verberne placed fourth at No. 3 doubles and the No. 1 team of Oberg and Gray placed fifth.

Doubles Teams Advance at WIAC Meet

Oct. 20, 2001

The doubles teams of Meghann Mulligan and Jordan Anderson and Mary Metzer and Meredith Verberne have won their first round matchup in the WIAC Meet.

Mulligan and Anderson, seeded second in No. 2 doubles, easily took care of UW-Stout's Tina Rodin and Rachael Weber, 6-2, 6-2.

Metzer and Verberne, seeded fourth in No. 3 doubles, beat Jana Braam and Kim Goron of UW-Stevens Point, 6-4, 6-0.

The Falcons No. 1 doubles team of Lindsey Oberg and Amanda Gray were defeated 7-5, 6-4 in the first round.

Tennis Team Loses Tough Match to UW-La Crosse

Oct. 13, 2001

Falcons Win at St. Catherine, 5-4
Sept. 25, 2001

The Falcon women's tennis team won a 5-4 decision for a second straight meet Monday afternoon at St. Catherine.

With a couple of veteran varsity members missing from the line-up, due to a class and illness, Coach Lee Lueck shuffled the line-up to include three JV players.

At the conclusion of the doubles, winning at the No. 2 and No. 3 spots, the Falcons took an early 2-1 lead. That lead was cut quickly when the Falcons lost at No. 1, No. 3, and No. 4 singles.

Then No. 5 JV substitute, Katie Perrott, won in a tiebreaker 11-10 (7-5), and No. 2 singles player, Jordan Anderson, won five straight games for an 11-9 victory. The meet was now on JV substitute Amber Weissinger's racket at No. 6 singles. With both teams and fans watching, Weissinger pulls out an 11-10 (7-5) tiebreaker to win the meet.

With the third win in four days the Falcons extended their season record to 7-2. The Falcons will next compete on Monday at Winona with action starting at 4:30 p.m.

Tennis Team Tops Oshkosh, 5-4
Sept. 22, 2001
The Falcon women's tennis team took a close 5-4 decision over UW-Oshkosh Saturday afternoon in River Falls.

Doubles was played first and after the three matches Oshkosh held a 2-1 lead in the team score. But the Falcons won four of the six singles matches to get the win. The Falcons are now 6-2 overall and 2-1 in the WIAC.

"We really came out and played well in the singles," Falcon coach Lee Lueck said. "Jordan Anderson's match is a great example. She lost the first (7-5) and came back to win the second (6-1). Then in the third she trailed 5-2 but came back to win five straight points to win the match, 7-5."

The Falcons will next play at St. Catherine on Monday at 4 p.m.

Tennis Team Beats St. Scholastica

Sept. 18, 2001

The Falcon women's tennis team went to 4-2 on the year after disposing of St. Scholastica, 7-2.

No. 1 singles player Lindsay Oberg survived a tough test from Saint Lisa Peterlin, 6-4, 6-7 (11-13), 7-2. Oberg fell 3-2 in the opening set, but reeled off four straight games to win the first set. Peterlin forced a third set when she broke Oberg's serve at 5-4. The two would hold serve to force the tie break. Due to darkness, the two played a twir break third set, which Oberg won handily.

No. 2 singles player Meghann Mulligan easily took care of St. Scholastica's Erika Dierker, and No. 6 singles player Meredith Verberne blanked Stacy Novak, 6-0, 6-0.

The Falcons were staked to an early 3-0 lead in the match after they swept doubles.

Falcons Open Season With Three Wins

Sept. 10, 2001

The Falcon women's tennis team opened its 2001 season winning all three matches played last weekend on an eastern Wisconsin road trip.

The Falcons won at St. Norbert on Friday, 5-4, and came back Saturday to take a pair of 9-0 wins over Lawrence and Lakeland.

The match against St. Norbert went down to the wire. UWRF got off to an early 4-1 lead. But with four matches still playing at one time, and UWRF only needing one more point for the victory, it looked like a Falcon win was close. However, the next three victories all belonged to St. Norbert.

With just the No. 5 singles players left playing, all eyes were focused on Falcon junior Mary Metzer. She had won the first set 6-3, but the second set was close and ended up in a tiebreaker, with Metzer winning 7-5. That secured the 5-4 victory for the Falcons and their first victory of season.

Also winning for the Falcons against St. Norbert were No. 2 Meghann Mulligan (6-3, 6-0), No. 4 Amanda Gray (6-1, 6-4), the No. 1 doubles team of Lindsey Oberg and Gray (10-1) and the No. 2 team of Mulligan and Jordan Anderson (10-2).
