UW-River Falls Registration Deposits for Continuing Students

Click the Registration Deposit link on the Student Center page:

You will have the option to move your deposit to the next fall or spring term, apply it to your account, or request a deposit refund from the UWRF Registration Deposit screen.

Verify that you have $-100.00 in the box. You do not have a registration deposit on your account if $-100.00 does not appear in the box.

(If you do not have a deposit on your account, payment should be made to the Financial Aid Office, 315 North Hall. Deposit holds are removed at 8:00, 12:00, and 4:00 am and pm after payment is received. RETURNING students CANNOT use electronic payments to make the $100 deposit. The hold will not be removed. NEW students CAN make the initial $100 deposit payment electronically if they have a deposit due line showing on their account; the hold will be removed at the next 8:00, 12:00, or 4:00 - am or pm.)

Select ONE of the three deposit options – move to a future term, apply to your account balance, or refund. You are not eligible for an option if the box is grayed out.
UWRF Registration Deposit

A $100 deposit is required prior to registering for each Fall or Spring term. Requests to move deposits to the next term can be made after the fifth week of the current term.

You are currently eligible to register for Spr 08-09 if you have no other holds on your account and there is $100.00 in this box: $100.00 Select the first option below to be eligible to register for the next fall or spring term.

Choose ONE of the three options if you have a deposit. You can’t click on a box that is gray; that option is not available to you. Selections cannot be changed after clicking SUBMIT.

☐ Please move my registration deposit to: Fall 2009-10
☐ Please apply my deposit to my account balance. I will pay future deposits by cash or paper check.
☐ Please refund my deposit. My account balance is $0.00 or less.

By requesting this change in registration deposit term and registering for that term, I agree to the financial obligation for all tuition and fee charges incurred and will abide by UWRF payment policy. I understand that in addition to the $100 deposit, all prior balances must be paid and I must sign the UW-RF fee payment agreement before I am eligible to register.

Deposits are automatically refunded after graduation or if not moved for four consecutive terms and no money is owed to UWRF.

(Please note: Self service refund requests will be processed within 10 days. Refund checks issued after the term ends will be mailed to your home address.)

$50 of the registration deposit is non-refundable if any registration activity occurs.

SUBMIT

Then Click Submit

Click Refresh to see when refresh screen to see verify that your transaction was processed.
This is verification that your transaction was processed.

UWRF Registration Deposit

A $100 deposit is required prior to registering for each Fall or Spring term. Requests to move deposits to the next term can be made after the fifth week of the current term.

You are currently eligible to register for Spr 08-09 if you have no other holds on your account and there is -$100.00 in this box: $-100.00

Select the first option below to be eligible to register for the next fall or spring term:

- Please move my deposit to the next term.
- Please apply my deposit towards tuition and fees.
- Please refund my deposit by cash or paper check.

By requesting this change, I agree to the financial obligation for all tuition and fee charges incurred and will abide by UWRF payment policy. I understand that in addition to the $100 deposit, all prior balances must be paid and I must sign the UW-RF fee payment agreement before I am eligible to register.

Deposits are automatically refunded after graduation or if not moved for four consecutive terms and no money is owed to UWRF.

(Please note: Self service refund requests will be processed within 10 days. Refund checks issued after the term ends will be mailed to your home address.)

$50 of the registration deposit is non-refundable if any registration activity occurs.